PREPARING TO GREET "BATTLING" NELSON

SEVEN BOXING BOUTS AT M. A. C.

Pugilist Champion to Be Followed a Week Later by Jimmy Britt—To Hold Receptions.

"BATTLING" NELSON,
Who will be in St. Louis next week.

The coming visit of Battling Nelson to St. Louis has created much interest in local sports, and Nelson will arrive to town Saturday morning, Oct. 28, from Marion road from Kansas City, where he is appearing this week.

He will appear at the Hippodrome, 10th and Locust streets, at 8 o'clock each evening, and will have receptions.

The Missouri Athletic Club will hold its first boxing match of the season in the gymnasium to-night, the first contest to be put on at 8:30 o'clock. Bouts will be fought at seven different weights. All entries are invitation, an outsider being asked to meet a M. A. C. boxer in the round.

The Missouri Athletic Club will hold its second boxing match of the season in the gymnasium to-night, the first contest to be put on at 8:30 o'clock. Bouts will be fought at seven different weights. All entries are invitation, an outsider being asked to meet a M. A. C. boxer in the round.

Harry Sharpe, the former West End boxer, will fight at 8:30 o'clock for the amateur title to-night. Joe Stewart and A. G. Bene will be the judges. Each contest will be at three three-minute rounds. The referee can order a fourth round of two minutes if necessary to decide.

In the heavy-weight division, John Sullivan, of the S. P. W., will have his second bout of the night, and should furnish a good go. Fred Hauseman and Ames Winkler are carded for the third round contests.

Willie Karpis, the best 125-pound boxer in the city, and champion at that weight, will oppose Phil Moes. Moes is a scrappy fighter at that weight and is able to tame the elongated Karpis.

Other bouts will be the 115 and 125 pound championship contests between the South Side and Central Club. The 115-pounder will retain his cleverness, and, although Karpis is rated as a comer, the champion should have no trouble in disposing of him.

Wilson Lowry will take Charlie Stevens' place in the 135-pound class, against Ed Frazee. Stevens recently hurt his eye and could not compete.

At the end of the afternoon, the 145-pound fighters of the city will meet Fred Long of the St. Louis Broadway Club in the light-weight bout.

TIGERS WILL NOT CANCEL GAME WITH WASHINGTON.

MISISON DENIES REPORT THAT ST. LOUIS TEAM WISHES TO CALL OFF CONTEST.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 20.—R. B. Caldwell, manager of the St. Louis team, tonight denied reports to the press that the Indians would refuse to do battle with the Tigers on Saturday.

The Highland Park football team, which will meet the Missouri Tigers here to-morrow, was formed by the boys of the University of Illinois, who are now studying at the school.

Mr. Caldwell's team was selected by the boys of Illinois, and the members of the St. Louis team were chosen by the boys of the University of Michigan.
